WOMAN'S WORK

JULY, 1906.

No. 7.

WANTED—Sixty thousand dollars to rehabilitate the Occidental Board Headquarters and Mission Home. Insurance due: Ten thousand and uncertain.

"How can I enjoy this nice soup, or fruit," Eleanor Chesnut often used to say at her hostess' table in Lien-chou, "while poor —— is suffering?" Straightway she would call a servant and send the palatable food to some Chinese patient in her hospital, strictly refusing to have her own plate replenished. In something of that mind the Woman's Boards feel they cannot go on enjoying their own comfortable Headquarters while the Occidental Board is homeless.

LESS than a month after the earthquake, Philadelphia Society came forward with an appeal to its constituency in behalf of the ruined building in San Francisco. They voted to aim for a gift of $10,000 and, although this is a bold undertaking for even the strongest of our Woman's Boards,—as a pure extra "in no way to interfere with existing pledges"—we, who know how staunch and willing-hearted are its membership, believe they will reach their goal. The appeal says:

"We were moved to this action by the request from the Board of Foreign Missions, by our peculiarly strong interest in the Occidental Board which for many years was a branch of this Society, by the extremities to which they have been brought, and by the efficiency and wonderful success of the Home, which has rescued almost two thousand Chinese women and girls."

THE North Pacific Board promptly voted $1,000 towards the new Occidental Home. New York Board, while not making a public appeal, has notified all presbyterial treasurers to receive funds offered and forward to Miss Hubbard as a special gift. The Northwest Board issued a warm-hearted appeal, saying:

"Who will rebuild the Rescue Home? May we not answer, 'We will help rebuild, and care for its inmates before another winter; we will share in supplying salaries of missionaries, remembering that when the Chicago Board was helpless, suffering from its own great fire, the sister Board of Philadelphia sent us a sum of money to pay the missionaries' salaries?'"

NEW YORK, Philadelphia and Southwest Boards have all offered assistance to the Occidental women for their destitute literature department.

As we go to press, the cable brings the not surprising tidings that Miss Isabella A. Nassau has been released from her long day's labor. Ever since 1868 she has been devoted to the missionary work in Africa, and where she worked she died, in her little home at Batanga. She had the best of medical care, for Dr. Lippert is there. In her earlier years Miss Nassau taught in girls' schools on Corisco and elsewhere. In the Ogowee country, she itinerated extensively in the Evangeline with her crew of boys, and for many years the training of a few young men for the ministry has been a feature of her life. We cannot doubt that Miss Nassau would have chosen to return to God as she did, from Africa, and her friends there and here joy in her joy.

THE missionary resignations which are announced this month, occur in several instances after long terms of service. It is with special pain that the names of our dear Africa veterans, Mrs. De Heer and Mrs. Reutlinger, are placed in that list after forty years, and more, of most true and loving service. We in America are much more resigned to have them here than they are to stay.

THE death of Rev. Benjamin Labaree, D.D., the well known and loved Persia missionary, has been widely noticed in Church papers. He died at sea, May 14, at the age of seventy-two, having been in active service forty-six years, either at Urumia or in connection with the Board of Foreign Missions in New York. At the comforting service held over his coffin in the chapel of the Fifth Avenue Church, his old associate, Rev. Henry N. Cobb, D. D., gave thanks that "in his long life there is no thing we would like to forget." Mr. Speer, whose feeling towards the dead was "that of a son for his father," spoke of the "gentleness that was not weakness;" there was "no pettiness—he surrendered all." Long to be remembered was the singing of "Asleep in Jesus" at the close. Dr. Labaree's children were all present—Rev. Robert Labaree of Persia, who brought his father across, the Misses Mary and Elizabeth Labaree, and Mrs. Benj. W. Labaree, all of Stamford, Conn.

THE Ninth Annual Conference closed June 7, only thirty newly appointed missionaries being present, a smaller number than usual. The programme was not a whit behind those of former years. Miss Alice Davison spoke most acceptably for the Women's Boards. Dr. Geo. Alexander, fresh from his Eastern trip, and all the Secretaries of the Board were at their best, while the maiden speech of the new Treasurer was one of the finest we ever heard on the subject of business. Dr. Rodgers of Manila, Dr. Ford of Syria, Mr. Lenington of Brazil and other missionaries, laymen and pastors of New York, were heard with profit from day to day. We wish that all the friends of Dr. Hubert W. Brown could have heard Dr. Halsey's delineation of his character. It was on the last morning when tributes were also paid to the memory of Drs. Labaree, Cochran and Eleanor Chesnut, the Supper of the Lord following. The tone of this tender closing session was heightened by those sympathetic touches for which the leader, Dr. Cleland B. McAfee, has a genius. The conference members were socially entertained by Spring Street Church, by New York Presbyterian Union, and by Mrs. John Crosby Brown at beautiful "Bright-hurst." Missionaries on furlough will do well to take in the next conference.

It has just leaked out after twelve years that a missionary on furlough stepped into a schoolroom in the West and, for two or three days, taught a young teacher's class in order that she, for the first time in her life, might attend the meeting of a Woman's Board of Missions in a neighboring county. That Meeting was the beginning of her interest on a special line so genuine, so deep, that she has poured out her constant service ever since, able and quickening, in her section of the country. We wonder whether Rev. Walter Lowrie ever knew what a current was set in motion by his thoughtful act and, if he does know, whether, after all his distinguished service in China, he does not contemplate with some peculiar pleasure those evenings when he sat rubbing up his Homer for some American students.

THE March and April editions of WOMAN'S WORK were exhausted while the demand for them continues, and if our friends have clean copies to spare, a large number would be acceptable to our business office, 156 Fifth Ave., Room 822.

UNION with Cumberland Presbyterians began, on the women's part, two years ago at Osaka where our "Naniwa" and their "Wilmina" schools for girls united without a dissenting voice and to the advantage of both sides. The Woman's Board of Missions of the Cumberland Church celebrated its silver anniversary last year. Having set out to mark the event with a contribution of $25,000, the sum they did receive was $45,365.37. There are six unmarried women in their Japan Mission, five in Mexico, and their Board sustains a mission for Chinese in San Francisco.

THE newspapers have faithfully reported the doings of the Gaikwar of Baroda who is visiting this country accompanied—strange but true—by the Maharani in her handsome native dress. That the Gaikwar's wife has come with him is accounted for by the very liberalized position which he has long assumed towards social and economic questions. After his return from the coronation of King Edward, the Gaikwar took off his wife's veil and, in spite of a fire of criticism from the people, she has not worn it since and a few high-placed Baroda ladies have ventured to follow her example. When the unchanging customs of India change before our eyes, Christian missionaries need not apologize or falter before any gates of brass.

ONE morning about the first of March, all Dehra (India) was waked up by an earthquake shock; damages were small,

Situation of the Occidental Board, San Francisco.

Mrs. L. A. Kelley, Chairman of the Chinese Mission Home Committee, is now in the East and has kindly furnished the following statement:

Some of the questions frequently asked me about the Mission Home are: How much did the old property cost and is there any indebtedness on it? Do you expect to enlarge? Will it be rebuilt on its old site? What will be the probable cost of the new Home?

Originally the whole property cost in round numbers $28,000. Two years ago it became necessary to add twenty-five feet to the frontage at a cost, with fence, etc., of approximately $3,500. About the time this new lot was bought, our women learned the facts of Dr. Alfred Sharrocks' self-denying work in Korea—how he was treating thousands of Koreans without hospital, operating table, or sanitary conveniences. Dr. Sharrocks was our missionary. Was it remarkable that we put the new lot in the background and raised, first, more than $2,600 as an extra gift to his work? The hospital is built; there is still a deficit of about $1,200 on our lot, which was to have been paid off the first thing after the close of the fiscal year in April last.

The new building will not be appreciably enlarged. It is not probable that the Home will be rebuilt on its old site, as, of course, it must follow Chinatown, the location of which is not yet determined.

Conditions are still too unsettled to have exact specifications as to cost of the new plant but, in round numbers, the steel frame structure which the rigid fire requirements will exact must greatly increase the cost of building, and every one who has given an off-hand estimate has fixed the sum at about $60,000. Even before the fire, cement was scarce and very high; the great demand for labor will increase the wage scale. In the face of such conditions the sum decided upon does not seem exorbitant. If the Home can be rehabilitated for less, it certainly will be as there is no desire on the part of the Board to be lavish in these trying times.

At present sixty are in the Home. This large family is huddled in a house quite inadequate to the necessities of such a number. But the yard is large, the skies are dry and blue, and the children need outdoor life. Most of them are sleeping on the floor. We have been spared so much that might have been horrible, that we feel we have endured but little and so many blessings have come to us that we have largely lost sight of the trials. Greatest of all have been the "showers of blessings" that have revealed to all the world the tendersympathy of the human heart. "The greatest of these is charity."

Mrs. C. S. Wright, Treasurer of the Building Fund, says:

On May 7, the Executive Committee of the Occidental Board met at Calvary Church to elect officers for the new year. There were twenty-six ladies present. Fifteen of that number were homeless, and almost all of the others had suffered through loss of business or income property. Often through the day our eyes would fill with tears as we discussed plans for the future. They were not tears of regret for our losses, but tears of gratitude for kindness shown us and offers of help.

Four of our presbyteries have suffered severely—Benicia, Oakland, San José and San Francisco. The Board decided to not give up any of our special objects, but to contribute all that we can towards them, and if we fall short we will ask the other six presbyteries not to take up any new work this year but to give their surplus to the general fund, and so help these four stricken presbyteries with their pledges. We shall do all we can for ourselves, but the missionaries must not suffer.

Mrs. H. B. Pinney, President of the Board, writes, May 30:

From presbyteries outside the earthquake belt comes this word to San Francisco Presbytery: "Don't give up any of your pledges to Foreign Missions. We will supplement any deficits by raising funds over and above our own pledges." With such a constituency, can we fail?

The Sound of Marching.

Some time since, the spirit of progress seized the Empress Dowager and she decreed that the old system of literary examinations should be relegated to the past and schools for Western learning should be introduced. In accordance with this decree our tao-tai has opened a new school in Kiungchow, our prefectural city, with an enrollment of two hundred and twenty students. Each student dresses in white uniform, semi-European in style, and proudly wears on his collar the badge, "Chinese-Anglo School Scholar." Thus "the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees" may be heard in Hainan if you will stop to listen.

These signs of progress are cheering. If China is ever to throw off her yoke of ignorance and superstition she must adopt a new system of learning. Yet there is a dark side to the picture. Three thousand young men who have applied to this school for admittance have been turned away. Why? No room to accommodate them. The government is unprepared to cope with the demand. The students are bright, the pick of the land. Many of them come to the Mission school to be met with the same response, "I can't take you; no room."

The missionary is heartsick. The opportunity that comes but once in the history of a nation must go. The one chance to bring these young men under the influence of the gospel and, through them, win this island for Christ is slipping away.

We must take heed lest the energy of these three thousand men be directed to stir up enmity against the foreigners. The recoil will come upon the missionary. Did not the foreigner popularize "Western learning" and make the old literary régime non-effective, leaving the literati of the old school with no opening? Throughout the country one hears that "China is no more China." All the conservatism of thousands of years rises up in the Chinese breast against things new, unless he can share in the benefits as well as the extra taxes imposed in order to support this "Western learning." Is this army of young men, or a part of it at least, to be utilized to win Hainan to Christ, or be left to create disturbance, perhaps bloodshed?

The women of China are becoming imbued with this spirit of progress. Many are unbinding their feet. Many want an education and their husbands want them to have it. Our flourishing Girls' School in Kiungchow under Miss Montgomery's superintendence is sadly hindered and cramped for room. A few days ago a young man, who speaks English, in the Chinese Imperial Customs said: "I want to send my wife to Miss Montgomery's school. My wife, she doesn't know anything." His wife is a pretty little-footed girl of about eighteen years. When the husband inspected the school he said, "It seems to me your quarters are very small," and so they are, and crowded too. In fact, the school has no abiding place of its own, but is living in rented quarters. Shall we not give the girls of Hainan a chance? Over Hainan OPPORTUNITY may be written in letters that reach to heaven. Do you not hear "the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees? . . . Then thou shalt bestir thyself."

First Commencement at Nodoa, Hainan.

It is the last day of school at Nodoa, Jan. 25, 1906, and the first class is to graduate. Two Christian young men who have been in school ever since they were little tots are the graduates. Every one knows them, every one is interested, and that is not all. The highest magistrate in the district, the Father-Mother official as they call him, has come to witness the closing exercises, and there is great excitement in the mission compound. Teachers are telling the small boys how to act, or are busy arranging a room for the official. Every one else is combing his queue and donning his uniform. Hark! there goes the gun in the distance, and some one rushes in to say that the great man is on the outside of the market. The schoolboys form in two lines from the big gate to the front door of the house in which the "Father-Mother" is to be entertained, and as he enters our gate three salutes are fired, while amid the bowing schoolboys and noise of firecrackers he is ushered to his room, where the men missionaries and head teachers ceremoniously welcome him. As long as he remains at the station, the guns are fired three times on every occasion when he goes in or out of the compound, and that is rather often, as he makes numerous calls and, early in the morning, goes out to worship in a temple. Of course he is careful to explain that he does not believe in idols; he only goes to worship to please the people.

Commencement Day we were all up bright and early. Mrs. Melrose and I decorated the chapel with red cloth, bright-leaved flowers and palms. The screens which on Sunday divide men and women of the congregation were taken out for once, so that the magistrate could walk down the center of the room. The first thing on the programme was showing him all over the premises—school, hospital and homes, including all our treasures—wells, phonographs, ice machines, etc. Our distinguished guest expressed himself as delighted with everything, and graciously accepted the copy of the Bible and an illustrated geography which were presented to him. Mrs. Melrose and I successfully dodged him, as, according to Chinese custom it was not proper for him to speak to us, and according to our custom he was very rude if he did not. We avoided the difficulty by keeping out of sight.

About noon the bell was rung and the people poured into our chapel until there was not even standing room. The magistrate and superintendent marched down the aisle, the school sang, the two graduates gave their orations, the magistrate and Mr. McClintock each made a short speech, the former, by invitation, presenting the diplomas. Then the names of the fifteen honor boys were read and each stood up in his place. There is very keen rivalry in a Chinese school for first rank, and even the fifteenth name was not to be despised in a school of over eighty.

The exercises proper were over, and now the fun began. Firecrackers "to right of us," firecrackers "to left of us volleyed and thundered" until the noise was deafening. If you have never seen a Chinese boy setting off firecrackers you have never seen him in his element, and his delight is contagious. After about twenty minutes of this, all adjourned to the lawn to watch the boys go through their drill. The magistrate looked on from Mr. Leverett's verandah and drank tea in the interim. That evening Mr. McClintock had the two graduates, the foreign men and head teachers to dinner, and with that function the day ended. The next morning our famous guest left amid firing of guns and booming of firecrackers, and the compound settled down to its Chinese New Year quiet.

We hope Hainan officials may see their way clear to give the degree to graduates of the Mission schools who have passed the same examinations as in government schools. Otherwise Christian boys will have to give up all hope of honors. To the question put, on that point, by the Basel Mission, the answer was that "If their scholars could pass the examination and their school had the same spirit they could have the degree." Just what that means no one seems to know. Yesterday, our Commencement guest sent over a pair of scrolls which are to be hung on the school walls. It is an honor for any school to have mottoes written by the official.

First Baptism and a Christian Wedding at Kachek.

About a year ago a young woman came to our house, whom I had previously seen in the Hospital in Hoihow, where she had been a patient for over two years, under care of Dr. McCandliss. She had then a very sore foot which some physicians thought was leprosy, but while there the foot was greatly helped. Returning to her husband's village, about twelve miles from Kachek, she had been forced to work in the muddy rice fields with the other women, which had caused a return of the trouble in her foot. At Chinese New Year's she had been persecuted because she would not worship idols and engage in other heathen ceremonies in the village, for she had learned much of the gospel and many hymns in Mrs. McCandliss' class at the Hospital. She had also exerted a good influence over other patients, inducing them to study Christian books.

We sent word to this woman's husband to come to see us, which he did after a month's delay. He explained that she had been sent away from his home because the villagers said she was a leper. Dr. Lasell assured him that this was not the case, and he agreed to leave her with us till she should be cured. He has so thoroughly left her, that he has never been back to see her and has given nothing for her support.

She has shown an earnest Christian character, ever since she has been with us, and a desire to be able to read the Bible. Miss Schaeffer has taken charge of her studies and at our last Communion she passed a very creditable examination and was baptized. She will probably never be well enough to do the manual labor required of a Chinese village woman, and we are caring for her in the hope that she may become a Bible woman in the Hospital which is now being erected.

We were very glad when we learned, about a year ago, that the medical assistant of Dr. Lasell was expecting to marry a Christian girl, who had spent several years at our Boarding School in Kiungechow. Since he also is a Christian, they wanted a Christian wedding.

As the appointed day drew near, the bridegroom sent two women, in one of the low, flat-bottomed boats used on our river, to escort the bride to Kachek. The day dawned dark and cloudy and at half-past six the rain was coming down in torrents. Putting on our stormcoats sun came out bright, and the carriers went to meet the bride. The sound of Chinese music was heard, and the bride, attired in a pretty Chinese costume of light lavender silk with an embroidered red silk handkerchief thrown over her face, was ushered into the Dispensary accompanied by her two women. The bridegroom took his place at her side, while a crowd of men, women and children filled the room, and a hundred pairs of eager eyes were fastened on the bride. I had taken my stand at her side to keep the crowd back. Silence fell the moment that Mr. Gilman began the ceremony. As the Word of God was read and the Christian ceremony was explained, there was as quiet attention as one ever saw at any wedding in America, and our hearts were raised in prayer that God would bless the young couple and make them willing to bear the criticism and slander which might fall on them for not having observed the usual heathen customs. Later on a feast was served to invited guests.

The red silk covering was removed from the bride's face before the ceremony began, and she spoke out very clearly in accepting her marriage obligations.

These friends seem very happy, though according to Chinese custom, they must not walk through the streets together, so every Sunday we send a woman to escort the wife to church. They live in a small room which they rent, and she has already begun to teach the women and children who live near her.

The bride's father is a Christian, and she was baptized when a baby. She spends much time studying the Bible, and her desire is to unite with the church when we celebrate the next Communion. I ask your earnest prayers that God will help these young people to lead such an earnest Christian life that they may point others to the Saviour.

and overshoes, Mr. Gilman and I waded down to the Dispensary where the wedding was to take place. The boat arrived, but the carriers of the red wedding chair would not take it out in the heavy storm, so we sat down with Dr. Lasell to wait. About ten o'clock the

The Philippines Mission.

From Report for 1905, Printed by Students of Silliman Institute.

General—About 1,500 believers have been added to the Church during the year, making the total number of communicants about 3,800. Two more Filipinos have been ordained to the ministry.

The material equipment of the mission has grown substantially. Two training school buildings in Manila, a twenty thousand peso hospital in Iloilo, four mission cottages in Dumaguete and permanent chapels in Iloilo, Cebu and Tacloban, have been among the building improvements of the year. Silliman Institute rejoices in the assurance of a thoroughly equipped shop for its Industrial Department, while Laguna Station has at last seen its long-cherished plans consummated in the arrival of the gospel launch, Mabuting Balita (Good News).

Tacloban and Albay each need a medical missionary, Dumaguete two teachers, Iloilo, Laguna, Tayabas and Cebu each need an ordained minister, while five large and populous provinces in the territory assigned to our mission by the Evangelical Union are entirely without a worker for the gospel. We ask you, therefore, to continue to join your prayers with ours that the Lord of the Harvest may thrust forth laborers into the harvest field.

Manila, Luzon.—Membership of First Presbyterian Church for Americans, Dr. Rossiter pastor, is 182, of whom 72 were received by letter during the year. Rev. John H. Lamb publishes a monthly paper, in the Tagalog tongue, which contains Sabbath-school lessons, news of the churches and translations from English papers. A short-term training class brought sixty-five Christian workers together in August. Ellinwood Training School was opened in November. Teaching is at present in Spanish. The two buildings erected under care of Rev. G. W. Wright are planned to serve as dormitories for students of the government Normal School.

Iloilo, Panay.—"In place of the ridicule and scorn of a few years ago, a wholesome respect for the Protestant movement and its adherents." Fourteen foreigners affiliated themselves with the foreign (American) congregation during the year, and there is a Sabbath-school for their children.

The Chinese congregation chose one of their members, a bright young man, and sent him to Amoy for training, they paying all his expenses. The intention is that he shall ultimately become their pastor. The Filipino congregation also chose one of the paid evangelists to be their pastor, promising to supply his full salary. He has since been ordained Sabbath-school numbers two hundred; there are seven women teachers. Juliana, the Bible woman, Cesarea, wife of the pastor, and many of the women members have done much house to house visitation and work for women and children. Leon has one hundred and fifty in Sabbath-school, and other smaller schools are held at Mandurriao, Oton, San Miguel, San José and Banga. As a result of all efforts, two hundred and two have been added to the membership. A new chapel was opened in Leon.

Dumaguete, Negros Oriental.—Silliman Institute, Rev. D. S. Hibbard, Ph.D., principal, enrolled 176 students from five islands; about forty are Christians, "actively interested in the work of Christ." A dozen boys look forward to the ministry. Manual labor such as would have caused the students to leave in a body, at the opening of the Institute, is now generally accepted. The Industrial Department has received a large addition to its equipment, including a small saw-mill, with machinist, blacksmith, carpenter and tools. The latter are housed in temporary quarters and used in the construction of a suitable workshop by the students. When Mr. Glunz had set up the 24 horse power engine and boiler, made the connections and opened the throttle for the first time, "the engine started as smoothly and noiselessly as if it had been running for months."

"The place on which we have made the most impression along evangelistic lines is Guijulngan, the northernmost town in the province. The work was done largely by two brothers, during their vacation at home. They were the first converts in the school and converted their family, even in its most distant ramifications. An older brother seems to have been peculiarly ready for the gospel message. Without any sort of human direction, he became a preacher among his own people, and we have found where he baptized some of his converts when they were seriously ill. He died before any missionary reached the place, and while on his way to Dumaguete to visit and receive baptism.

"Guijulngan was visited three times and about 175 were baptized; the majority of them were from the mountains. On one visit it was necessary to perform over thirty marriages in preparation for the ceremony of baptism. The sum total of the wedding fees was three eggs."

H. W. Langheim, M.D., reports: "Sixteen in-patients in the small hospital covered the equivalent of 444 days; 1,923 dispensary cases represented every town in the province; about 400 visits were made; 800 vaccinations were performed at the hospital by the medical missionary and about 40,000 in various parts of the province under his supervision."

Cebu, Cebu Island.—"Eighteen congregations and eleven chapels, of which nine were erected this year;" 359 baptized. Hundreds in the province died of famine.

Tacloban, Leyte.—The new chapel is a simple, airy, comfortable house of worship, open to the four points of the compass, to catch all the breezes. It has been stoned several times, as have buildings on other islands, especially the homes of some Protestant Christians.

Laguna, Luzon.—Names of 1,400 students have been mailed to friends in the United States, so that Christian reading may be sent direct to students in their home towns.

Influence of One Hainanese Wife.

Woman in China may not be the head of the house but, as elsewhere, she has a wonderful power for making life happy or miserable for the family. We have an illustration of this in the village of Grand Prè (Doa-fo), three miles from the town of Kachek. A gentle old man, Bäng-vun, lives there, who has attended services for more than two years, and the women folk of his household have led him a sorry life for his interest in Christianity. Last August his daughter-in-law committed suicide by hanging. She was a woman of violent temper and her own mother committed suicide in the same way a few months earlier. The cause of the daughter's rash act was said to be the refusal of Bäng-vun to burn paper clothes at the time when "the spirits are let out of Hades" and expect such offerings.

We sent some of the brethren to comfort Bäng-vun and to assure him of our sympathy and continued prayers on his behalf, but we did not call on him lest our going uninvited should make matters harder for him.

It was not until January (1906) that Bäng-vun came out again to the street chapel and to Sunday services. About this time, his youngest son was taken ill, and man's extremity proved to be God's opportunity, for the mother, though hostile, decided she must have the benefit of Dr. Lasell's treatment for her son. She and another woman brought the boy and, when we learned who she was, you may be sure that we did our very best to persuade her that we were friendly and wished well to her and her family. We showed her through the house; Mr. Gilman took his bicycle out and rode around the yard for her entertainment, and Mrs. Gilman brought in Chinese cakes and sweets and tea. When Mrs. Bäng-vun and her friend were about to leave, she said she was going to tell her husband that she was like him in that, having once met us, she could not bear to leave. I had been praying she might give us an invitation to her village, but she said never a word about it. The Sunday after this call Bäng-vun came and, holding up the fingers of one hand, said, "Matters are five parts better at home since my wife's visit here."

A short time ago, Bäng-vun called on Dr. Lasell and said he would not be out next Sunday, as he purposed watching the house at home while his wife came to service. She came and, on leaving, gave the coveted invitation to their village. I did not wait to be invited a second time, but rode out to Grand Prè the following week and met with a hearty reception on the part of Bäng-vun, his wife and their eldest daughter. Crowds of village women and children filled the house and the court outside, and I trust none of those people will again readily believe any of the horrible tales that were current about us before the big idol festival which was held in the second moon. One of Bäng-vun's sons is now in school and, with the members of his family in sympathy with him, we trust that Bäng-vun may have a less lonely and sorrowful life.

How God Used the Shiftless One.

The beginnings of interest in Christianity in a new region often show one the strange way in which God works and the unusual means He employs in the spread of His gospel. I have an instance in mind.

Seventeen miles northeast of Nodoa are a great many villages where the well-to-do people are very devout demon worshipers, so that the slightest illness is the occasion of much worship to appease the bad spirits. Among those often affected by evil spirits was the only son of the sister of Ajiu, one of the church members at Nodoa. In the autumn of 1900 Ajiu had come, with her husband and family, to the hospital here seeking relief from the demons that produce ulcers, as both husband and wife had such large open sores on feet and ankles that neither could walk, and all their substance had been spent in the effort to appease the spirits which still refused to leave them. A month's residence and treatment in the hospital were very successful in healing the ulcers (exorcising the demons, as the Chinese say). Both patients received a good understanding of salvation through Jesus Christ, and never afterwards did either worship idols or demons. They were examined several times for baptism, and finally the wife was taken into the church. The husband died and Ajiu was left alone to care for their three children. She remained true to her profession as a Christian, but she was so incompetent in work that we foreigners distinguished her from others of the same name as "Ajiu the Shiftless."

However, through her representation of the advantages of our treatment of the sick, her sister's son came to the hospital as a last resort, for they also had worshiped all the bad spirits they could even hear of and still the boy had fever and leg ulcers. The child's grandmother came to care for him while he was in hospital and, under the instruction of the old Bible woman, she became very much interested in Christianity and talked so much about it on her return home that her neighbor, in a near village, returned with her to investigate the new belief. Each put a child into the boys' school, and asked the privilege of attending for a month's instruction, that they might understand Christianity better. As a result of the interest and faith of these two women, there are now six church members and between twenty and thirty catechumens scattered through seven or eight villages. Although seventeen miles away, they come here twice a month for Sunday services and some of the teachers or preachers hold services in their villages at other times. A chapel is being put up by the Christians of the region so that they may enjoy regular services.

Of all our church members, Ajiu was the last any of us would have expected to accomplish anything for the spread of the gospel, but God used her influence in opening a whole region. She died last year, but the influence goes on.

Mission for Japanese in San Francisco.

Mrs. E. A. Sturge sent in the following Report, dated March 12. Since then the mission church has been damaged to the extent of $800 loss.

Twenty-eight Japanese women and children have found shelter in the Home during the past year. Those unacquainted with this department of work can have no idea of what lies hidden in this simple sentence. Long journeys, exciting rescues, weary confidences, rest-breaking anxieties, all are here, and heart-throbs of joy also. Some came of their own accord; others were brought by officers of the law; others were snatched from dens of vice. All heard of Him who said "Neither do I condemn thee; go and sin no more." Six women received baptism and united with the Japanese Presbyterian Church. Four returned to Japan. Six have been reunited to husbands from whom they were temporarily separated; two have been happily married; one went to live with a sister, while eight have gone to work in American families.

Yuki Yuki was a young farmer's wife. They were working in the fields in Hawaii and, for Japanese, were unusually fond of each other. At the beginning of the Russo-Japanese war the husband was commanded to return home and serve on the battlefield. The wife continued in the Islands, supporting herself as a domestic in a European family. There she was found by a worthless fellow, who spoke of gold and persuaded her to come with him to Frisco. In this city she found herself in a brothel, where she suffered untold agony. Fortunately she met a man who had come from her native province and pleaded with him to save her. He came to our Home and Miss Cameron, in spite of difficulties, found and rescued the young woman and placed her in our Home. Here she learned something of the story of salvation. She had a brother who was found in Seattle; he came on here, and the meeting of brother and sister in our parlor brought tears even to eyes accustomed to look upon such scenes. It was evident these people belonged to a respectable family, and perfectly clear that the young woman never intentionally entered upon a bad life. Yuki went on to Seattle. We have just had a letter from them, and they seem so grateful to God for His wonderful mercy. This is only one of many experiences.

LETTERS FROM MISSIONARIES

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

MRS. C. A. GLUNZ wrote from DUMAGUETE: Silliman Institute is having a banner year. As next week is the mid term vacation, this week has been devoted to examinations in our studies, genuine examinations, each subject taking the entire morning or afternoon.

The boys are simply marvels. They have been in school barely three months, and have mastered the multiplication table through 12 x 12, and are working examples in the thousands in subtraction, multiplication and division. All instruction is in English, and when the boys entered school they could not tell you their name. At our last Communion

TWELVE STUDENTS WERE BAPTIZED.

It was one of the most impressive sights I ever witnessed. The service was read in English, Spanish and Visayan. We had one Siamese boy who understands only English, and the rest were either Tagalogs who understand no Visayan, or Visayan who understand no Spanish.

In May, Mrs. Hibbard and Mrs. McIntire started work among the women. We have a very poor room for our services, but it was all we could secure and it is right amongst native homes. The women seem very much interested. General preaching services are held in the market square every Saturday evening.

MRS. ROY BROWN of ALBAY wrote from Legaspi, March 26:

I wanted to come straight from our last Communion service and write you a letter, but it was too late. I was much amused at the way the evangelist told the church members to come and be in their places by 6.30. Our services do not begin until seven o'clock. The thought, "You intend them to be on time," had hardly flashed through my brain when I heard him say that, since it was Communion they ought to come and be in a spiritual frame of mind prepared for the service. When we went up, near to the hour, all were in their places. We took in thirteen new members, which makes our number now for the first year's active work, the year being only ten and one half months so far. We are very happy over it and I am sure you are, too. Last Sunday Mr. Brown told the Sunday-school he wanted a thought from each class. The response was so different from home; here, each one wanted to tell something. I chose one boy from my class and gave him his "idea." He interrupted me, saying, "I can tell it all." I suggested that he leave some few thoughts for the others and, very loath, he accepted my advice. This same boy is a promising young fellow. He speaks fairly well in English and is earnest about learning all he can. He says he often finds some boy has written on his tablet making fun because he is a Protestant, "but I do not mind that."

BEYOND THE HUNDRED FOLD

Few English-speaking boys from the High School venture as yet into Sunday-school. Their parents have told them that if they come they must leave school, so they stay away. They come and stand around the doors, though, and some day they will come inside.

We lead a busy life, even if there is not all the push and go in it that you people have at home. We trust we have the Spirit of God with us and know He blesses us far beyond our worth. Of course you know of Mrs. Pieters' death. Such a sweet letter in the WOMAN'S WORK, and so like her!

SIAM.

MISS EDNA COLE wrote from BANGKOK, April 20:

We have just had sad, sad news from Pit-sanuloke. We had been informed by several telegrams of the illness of Mrs. Walker, and this morning brings the wire: "My darling wife is dying. Emaciation fever.—WALKER."

We cannot understand the reason for this, but we know that somehow it reads the word Love. Our sympathies are with Dr. Walker. All others of our mission company are well, but this year of great heat is one also of great sickness; cholera is very prevalent among the poor, especially the Chinese, and last week three Germans died of it.

It is now four months since I arrived again in Bangkok,—full, well, glad months they have been. School was successfully carried on in my absence by the ladies in charge. Just now we are having our hot season vacation. Misses Bruner and McCord are down the coast for the month; Miss Cooper is visiting among her downtown friends, while I am surveyor in charge of the carpenters, whitewashers, scrubbers, etc., and slowly we are getting ready for the return of the family. Some twenty-five mattresses and forty-five pillows have been made over and bedding for eighty little beds has been cleaned and folded away ready for the "spring opening."

Our dear Princess, together with our Siamese teachers, have started the

FIRST WOMAN'S CLUB IN SIAM.

They have graciously made me a member, of which I am truly proud. We meet the 15th of every month if it does not happen to fall on Sunday. A lecture on some practical subject is read at each meeting, and a general discussion follows. Another item of interest:

A LADIES' JOURNAL IN SIAMESE

has just been published. The editor, a nobleman of the second rank, invited the members of the Woman's Club to assist him, but, although individuals will give some help, they decided it was not wise to take up the work of the magazine as a club. The King's Daughters have taken a twelve-page department in Daybreak, the mission newspaper in Siamese, and call it "Woman's Work for Woman."

CHINA.

MISS MANUELLA MORTON wrote from NING-PO, March 28:

Our hearts have been very much stirred by a series of meetings, held daily for the past ten days, by a young Chinese woman from Soochow. She is frail and delicate from spinal trouble, but seems filled with the Holy Spirit. God is using her in a wonderful way. There is no excitement; she only aims to arouse Christians to deeper love and consecration.

OUR EYES HAVE BEEN OPENED

to what Chinese Christians can do for the China of the future. She has reached the hearts of women and girls in a way no foreigner could. Last Sunday afternoon, Miss Rolleston found the girls of our school crying over their sins. The afternoon meeting was a blessed one, as testimony after testimony was given. Our oldest girl in this Anglo-Chinese school has been led out of darkness into the light and confessed her Saviour this afternoon. Our prayers are being answered in a marvelous fashion and I stand rebuked at my lack of faith.

When I read of the wonderful revival in Foochow, among students belonging to the wealthy and gentry class, where 121 confessed their Saviour, from just this class of people, I take courage and know that we have made no mistake and the Lord wants this school.

A MOHAMMEDAN BAPTIZED.

REV. A. G. MCGAW wrote from ETAH, U. P. :
Early yesterday morning, one of our Christian young men brought into my study a young Mohammedan inquirer. He had been before the Session the day before and was accepted for membership in the Church, but during the night he had been stirred up by friends who endeavored to turn him from his purpose. His baptism had been set for the morning service. Now he was pleading that it be postponed. He acknowledged that it was the advice of the adversary to delay. However, he insisted on waiting till evening, and all we could do was to pray. He had been brought to the point of decision in the first place by the son of our pastor, a boy about fourteen years old. He and our son Wilbert are great friends. About two in the afternoon, when I was busy getting ready for Sunday-school, these two boys came with the request for a little prayer meeting. Of course the young Mohammedan was the chief subject for our prayers. He did not appear, however, at evening service. We in Jesus' name, and our petitions were granted. That night the pastor's son, one of the elders and the young convert came into my room unannounced, not stopping to knock. The boy was too eager for formalities. He had a note from his father who was sick, asking me to baptize the young man. A few of us soon gathered and had a delightful little service, entering into the joy of the angels over one sinner that repenteth.

In line with Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston's messages, I had told our people that each Christian of Etah had an average of 150 to bring to Christ in order that Etah's 863,000 all be brought. The pastor's son is now looking for his next, with good prospects of getting him. He says he has now but 149 left.

When Committee and Presbytery came, four new churches were organized in the district, with an aggregate of sixty members. These little churches have no elders yet, and no actual pastor. Their leaders are men with two or three years' schooling and not a high degree of spirituality, yet the work is progressing. Praise the Lord with us!

Sunday-school was reorganized recently, with a number of new teachers, a teachers' meeting, and a campaign of visitation in nearby villages. Sixteen bands were arranged. Yesterday the Secretary reported an attendance of 1,148 in all schools. That means that about the Word of God by the mouth of these Sunday-school witnesses. I never felt so much like praising God all the time as I do this winter.

HOME DEPARTMENT

TWO GIFTS ACKNOWLEDGED.

The United Study Class in Christus Liberator which met at 156 Fifth Ave., New York, and the free-will offering made by its members, were mentioned in the April issue of this magazine. An additional and fuller statement regarding this offering is now in order, and it is desirable that it be made as public as possible, for the sake of the committee, the members and especially the donors, who are scattered among ten branches of the Christian Church.

The original sum contributed at the closing session of the Class was $61.52, and this was afterwards increased to $163.52. Of this amount, sixty-three dollars was designated for Huguenot College at Wellington, Cape Colony, So. Africa, and one hundred dollars and fifty-two cents for Livingstonia Mission, British Central Africa, the latter gift to be applied towards the establishment of the new station at Chitambo, the scene of Livingstone's memorable death.

The money for Huguenot College was placed directly in the hands of its president, Miss A. P. Ferguson, who is now visiting the homeland, and she replied with a warm note of thanks. Miss Ferguson has also circulated a typewritten statement of all moneys which she has received for the College, during the year, in which is incorporated the item, "Mission Study Class, N. Y., $63." From the letter accompanying this financial statement, the following is quoted:

"THE WINTHROP."
MERIDEN, Conn., May, 1906. }

My passage is engaged for June 23d. I wait before leaving to send a message of loving greeting to the many friends who, for the sake of Africa and for the sake of the Master whom we serve, have received me with much interest and sympathy. I go back to my work encouraged and cheered.

I send you with this a statement of money received. I felt at the beginning, in looking over the work, that we needed half a million of dollars for building and equipment, for endowment and scholarships. . . . We are still a long way short of that amount. . . . The money is important,—we must have it,—the work cannot go on without it. The asking for it, the giving it, the receiving it, are all a part of our devotion to the Master, but "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." Will you, dear friends, work together with us in your prayer to God for us? Will you? When you think of Africa, will you remember that little one that the Lord has planted there and ask that it may be all that God can make it, to His glory, for that continent? . . .

Yours in Him, A. P. Ferguson.

The gift for Chitambo Station was forwarded to the officers of the United Free Church of Scotland at Edinburgh, and the treasurer, in his letter of acceptance, wrote as follows:

. . . The sum will be duly applied in terms of your instructions, and herewith I have much pleasure in sending the usual receipt. In doing so, I hope you will allow me in the name of the Livingstonia Committee to thank you and, through you, your Study Class for the handsome contribution. It is, I assure you, very highly appreciated indeed. . . . I fully expect a reference to it will be made in the May Record.

With warmest regards,
Yours very sincerely,
A. Ellison Ross.

In The Missionary Record of the United Free Church, for May (p. 215), appears the paragraph below, and, having read it, the earnest and warm-hearted givers who joined in the free-will offering will agree that a very pleasant incident of our United Study Class has been pleasantly concluded.

A TRANSATLANTIC GIFT FOR THE CHITAMBO EXTENSION.

Among the gifts received in response to Lord Overton's article in the February Record on the call to evangelize the district around Livingstone's African grave, one merits special notice. It is a gift of a hundred dollars conveyed by Miss Ellen C. Parsons from a United Study Class representing ten denominations of the Christian Church. Two days before the lesson on Central Africa was reached the February Record arrived, and "the plan to found the new station on a spot forever sacred to all friends of Africa" was brought under the notice of the class, and evoked their warm interest. The above-mentioned gift, contributed by about seventy-five women, is the result. Miss Parsons adds: "It seems to me worth while to draw attention to the fact that united study of missions is broadening the sympathy of many branches of the Church, and that our class would have enjoyed giving to any one of half a dozen British missions in Africa. Its choice was made, not on account of a fervent appeal—we had none—but as the result of study and reading. I am warranted in adding that the history of Chitambo Station will be followed by those givers with intelligent interest and loving prayers."

INTERDENOMINATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOLS

Under auspices of the Women's Boards of Foreign Missions.

The experiment of a summer school for training leaders in local societies and for lectures upon the United Study of Missions was tried at Northfield, Mass., three years ago. Last year a school at Winona, Ind., was also held, and, besides these two, a third is appointed this year at Monteagle, Tenn. Lectures on the United Study text-book will be given at the Chautauqua Assembly, as last summer, and will be features also at the Chautauqua of Iowa and at Ottawa, Kansas. The lecturer at Ottawa is Mrs. J. M. Miller of the Southwest Board.

The programme of Winona School will be found under "Notes from Chicago." That at Northfield is as follows: July 17-24, Daily—9 A. M., Bible Study.

10.00, Lecture on Christus Redemptor, the study for 1906-'07.

11.00, Discussion of practical questions in connection with missionary societies.

11.35, Three simultaneous sectional meetings on the use of the text book.

Evening—Round Top, Vesper Service and public address.

Mrs. Chas. N. Thorpe presides on the closing day, Miss Margaret E. Hodge is Presbyterian member of committee, and Dr. Arthur Brown, Dr. Halsey, Mrs. Lawrence Thurston of Y. W. C. A. and of Human, China, are among the speakers. Mrs. W. A. Montgomery, author of the new study on "The Island World," is lecturer upon it.

Beautiful East Hall is assigned for use by the girls in attendance.

For information how to get to East Northfield, reduced railway rates and other accommodations, send for free leaflet, to the Women's Board, 156 Fifth Ave., New York, Room 818.

The Friendship Calendar is certainly the best of its kind that has ever come to our desk. It is intended for the use of those many individual friends, or for a group of friends, who wish to prepare an original calendar for some far-away dear one. The plan is to furnish a cheery thought for every day in the year by word or picture, pressed leaf or other souvenir, by quotation or "original work in prose, verse, pencil, pen or brush." The handsome Calendar back is in colors, materials are nice, proportions perfect, the pad—4½ in. x 5—is not glued on but firmly fastened by metal clips. A brochure offering hints on "How to Use It" accompanies the Calendar and, when finished, it can be mailed as a Christmas gift in the same case in which it was received. The price is one dollar, postpaid.

We take the trouble to speak of this so fully because societies and Sunday-school classes, younger and older, often like to put something of themselves into a token for a missionary friend, and this Calendar promises to be a convenience in such cases.

Order from Friendship Calendar Co., New Britain, Conn.

DEFERRED ANNUAL MEETING OF THE OCCIDENTAL BOARD.

This was held in the First Church, Berkeley, with a large attendance.

The past year had been the best in the history of the Board, with growth in almost every department and a goodly increase in gifts. Great had been the plans and hopes for the year to come; nay, they are the plans, for many societies within the boundaries of the Board are pledging themselves to far larger things than ever before.

Dr. Lapsley McAfee, pastor of the church whose guests we were, conducted the devotional service in the afternoon, one of the marked features of the day. He has a genius for such meetings. Mrs. E. A. Sturge reported twenty-eight Japanese women and girls in the Home at various times during the year. Miss Cameron was to have told of their leavetaking at 920 Sacramento St., but was unavoidably detained on one of her rescue trips. Miss Myers, field secretary, had been forbidden to talk, as she was still exhausted from the nerve-trying duties of the month previous, but in a few words she told of the joy of her office, because of opportunities it puts in her way for doing something that will count.

Rev. D. E. Potter introduced Rev. Chohaehira Kajinara, professor of exegetical theology, North Japan College, Sendai,—a classmate of his at Princeton and a dear friend. In a few well-chosen words the Professor told us how the money sent from this country was used in caring for famine-stricken people in Japan. A towel made into a bag was filled with necessities—potatoes, rice, eggs, or whatever was to go—but always a little New Testament; this bag carried its good gifts to the needy and was thereafter to be used as a towel.

This story brought the session to a close.

Florence W. Prutzman.

July. Topics for prayer: The Divine Guidance of our Society Throughout the Year. Hainan and the Philippines.

THERE will be no prayer-meeting in Westminster Hall in July or August.

THE Annual Meeting of the Corporation of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church was held in Westminster Hall, Witherspoon Building, Tuesday, May 1. There is a rearrangement of workers, Mrs. E. Boyd Weitzel taking the place of Mrs. Wm. Watters as Secretary of Presbyteries and Auxiliaries, with Mrs. W. A. Obdyke as Secretary for C. E. Missionaries instead of Mrs. Weitzel. Mrs. J. H. Lee was appointed Secretary of Literature to relieve Miss S. Elizabeth Jones, who is now Recording Secretary in place of Mrs. J. R. Miller. It was with sincere regret that the resignations of Mrs. J. R. Miller and Mrs. Wm. Watters were accepted. Each has given fifteen years of loving and efficient service. This means much more than can be expressed in a short report.

THE TREASURY.—Receipts for 1905-'06 are $174,447.31; less by over three thousand one hundred than last year.

AN APPEAL "to each member" of this Society is now being sent out, at a time, in a way and for a purpose altogether new to us. The purpose is to help our sisters of the Occidental Board to rebuild the Rescue Home for Chinese girls, destroyed by fire and earthquake in San Francisco, by raising $10,000 as a special fund. The way proposed is for every member of this Society,—and others if they will,—to make a personal gift for the purpose, sending the same directly to our treasurer, Miss Sarah W. Cattell, 501 Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa., and the time,—during this summer and until Sept. 15th.

The leaflets are sent to the president of each auxiliary, to be distributed by her to the missionary organizations connected with us in her church. All should be reached during June; all should read carefully and give as they are able, and all of the money should be in by Sept. 15. Send no "regular" foreign missions money to this Fund; let it be a genuine, new, free-will offering for an unprecedented need. For further explanation of need and plan, consult the stirring appeal leaflet. Send for a larger supply if you can use them.

OUR Directors were called together on Tuesday, May 29th, to hear Mrs. Kelley of the Occidental Board tell the thrilling story of the earthquake, and of the fire which proved far more destructive than the earthquake. She told of the total loss of the Rescue Home,—for which our appeal-leaflet had already been prepared,—and of the imperative need of having the girls safely housed before winter. The story was heart-thrilling, but beyond and above it was the inspiring sense of the undaunted courage and hopeful looking forward to the future which Mrs. Kelley and her associates have, in the face of such losses and privations.

THE Thirty-sixth Annual Report is published and can be had at 501 Witherspoon Building. All presidents and presbyterial officers receive it free. Copies for sale, 10 cents. Please note contents of the slips inserted with first page, called "The Use of This Report."

MISS GRACE M. LUCAS was adopted as our missionary at the Directors' meeting. Miss Lucas is a graduate of Wooster University, Ohio, and will belong to the Central China Mission. Dr. Frances F. Cattell said good by to us at the called meeting, May 29. She is returning to her medical work as head of the Tooker Memorial Hospital, Soochow.

NEW LEAFLETS.—Mexico Series: The Mission Press and Bible Work, price, 2 cts.

From Chicago.

Meetings at Room 48, Le Moyne Block, 40 E. Randolph Street, every Friday at 10 A. M. Visitors welcome.

THE Annual Reports will be mailed this month. A copy goes to each local secretary of W. M. S., of Y. People's Soc. and Band. We hope the members of each society will read and study it carefully for it will, with the Year Book, answer many questions. A copy is also sent to each officer of synodical and presbyterial societies, as given on our list.

BECAUSE of the death of Dr. Hubert W. Brown of Mexico, Mrs. Brown has decided to leave the mission field, feeling that her duty is to care for the education of her three sons. Mrs. Brown has been a true helpmeet throughout their married life. She went out from us as Miss Wilma Jacobs in 1888. She did most excellent work, first at Zacatecas, then alone at Fresnillo, where, unaided except by the Mexican Christians, she carried on the work and attended to the erection of a church building. Oct. 19, 1886, she was married to Mr. Brown.

LATE in May the Board sent out an Appeal to all of its societies for help for rebuilding the work of the Occidental Board, San Francisco, which we hope will meet with prompt and liberal response.

MENTION was made in the May magazine of the Summer School at Winona Lake and the study of "The Island World." Now we have the entire programme, of which we here give a synopsis, as follows:

Monday, June 25, 5 P. M., Registration, Reception.

Each morning at 8.45, Devotional Service. 9 o'clock, "An Enlarged Missionary Bible; Studies for Missionary Devotional Services."

9.50, Missionary Study Class, "Christus Redemptor; The Island World," by Mrs. W. A. Montgomery (the author).

11.05, "Methods of Work" Organization—The Purpose and Power. The Pen and Press: "The Women that Publish the Tidings are a Great Host." The Missionary Periodical—Is it Read? If Not, Why? The Missionary Leaflet: Its Mission; How Most Effective? The Missionary Library: Ten Best Books. "The Lord's Treasury." "And the Lord Sat Over Against the Treasury." Gifts, Legacies, Annuities. Best Methods of Raising Money in Woman's Societies.

The Children of the Church: In the Home, the Church, the Sunday-school; in Junior Societies and Mission Bands.

Young People's Day. The Relation of Woman's Societies to Young People's Societies. Special Suggestions for Young Ladies.

In the afternoons each day special meetings of various kinds. At 4.30, Round Table. Discussion of Morning Topics; 8.00, Address at the Auditorium. Farewell Prayer Service, 11.00 A. M., Monday, July 2d.

Two leaflets, Bible Work and The Mission Press, compiled by Mrs. Hubert Brown and Miss McDermid and printed on the Mexico City Press, are very interesting and helpful. There are also a few copies of The Lienchow Martyrs, together with The Neglected Provinces of Korea. These are all free, but send a two cent stamp for postage.

MISS GLENN, Traveling Secretary for the Young People, spends the month of June among the societies of North Dakota.

From St. Louis.

Meetings the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 10 A. M., at Room 21, 1516 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo. Missionary literature for sale at the above number. Visitors always cordially welcome.

As General Assembly was so close to us this year, we had the privilege of having two delegates, Mrs. S. I. Lindsay and Miss Agnes Fenby. We were very ably represented also by Mrs. Hunter Corbett and Dr. E. E. Fleming. Such glowing reports as were brought back to the rooms,—such pride in our two good missionaries as our representatives felt! What a blessing it is to have missionaries we can be so proud of!

THE Annual Report is being made ready for distribution, and we would call special attention to our two new secretaries,—Miss Julia E. Hyde, Sr. S. C. E., and Mrs. Wm. T. Haydock, Jr. S. C. E. and Bands. We do need a revival in young people's work, and these secretaries are willing to help you, if you will only put yourselves in the way to be helped.

At the May monthly meeting Mrs. Rosborough, Secretary for Candidates, told of the number of candidates offered from our territory and the repeated verdict from headquarters, that, owing to the state of the treasury.

no more missionaries were to be sent out. Those present were deeply moved at the spiritual inertia of our Church, so rich in this world's goods, and a very earnest, impressive prayer was put up by Mrs. Lindsay that the Holy Spirit would move the hearts of our people to greater liberality.

From San Francisco.

Legal headquarters, Calvary Church, corner Fillmore and Jackson Sts., San Francisco.

OUR Annual Meeting was held in two sections, at Calvary Church, and two weeks later in Berkeley. A basket luncheon was supplemented by the Berkeley women with coffee and fruit. The pastor, Rev. L. McAfee, and his wife, with the church, gave a cordial welcome.

Mrs. Pinney, our new president, was in the chair. The plan had been made that Mrs. Wright, the retiring president, should preside during the presentation of Annual Reports, and then with a well-arranged speech she should introduce her successor, who was to respond with appropriate words. This plan was foiled as, on account of sudden illness in her family, Mrs. Wright could not be present. Mrs. Pinney found that their speeches, which had been prepared for April 18, did not fit the occasion on May 20. A less formal opening gave satisfaction to all.

Our next public meeting will be held in Alameda. These three cities—Berkeley, Oakland and Alameda—lie along the Bay like "jewels," as seen from our windows in San Francisco, when brilliantly lighted at evening. The people shine now, in their helpfulness to the refugees from the desolation which so suddenly fell upon the metropolis.

LETTERS may be addressed as follows:

To Treasurer—Mrs. E. G. Denniston, 3454 Twenty-first St., San Francisco.

Literature—Miss Belle Garrette, 2503 Central Ave., Alameda, Cal.

Mrs. E. V. Robbins, 2214 Fulton St., Berkeley, Cal.

Miss Donaldina Cameron, No. 3 Bay View, Station B, San Rafael, Cal. Those who wish to visit the temporary "Mission Home" will go via Sansalito to the address here given.

OUR president, Mrs. H. B. Pinney, may be addressed at her residence, 2830 Buchanan St., San Francisco. All who are at a loss as to where to direct letters may send them to Mrs. Pinney, who will forward them promptly.

MRS. J. P. PRUTZMAN, associate treasurer, has furnished some notes as follows:

The Occidental Board Bulletin, suspended a few years ago, had been resumed and the first issue was in readiness for distribution at the Annual Meeting, April 18. Several delegates had already arrived and others were to come on the 18th. Most of them fled precipitately and several lost their dress-suit cases in the fire.

At the meeting May 8, for election of officers, the question uppermost was, Who will be there? It was a strange coming together. After the first ebullition of joy over seeing the familiar faces came the questions, "Were you burned out? Where are you now?" With the loss of home and church and "920" we were bereft indeed, yet not one sad face, not one note of discouragement. Had they not left to them more than was taken—faith, hope, courage? They knew that "God reigns," and "God will remember the world." Miss Cameron came with arms full of magnificent roses and English hawthorn for the dearly loved presidents, the one just retiring from office and her incoming successor.

At this meeting a new office was created, viz., "Secretary of Mission Study Classes," to which Mrs. Dwight E. Potter was elected. She will put new life into these studies.

From Portland, Oregon.

Meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at the First Presbyterian Church. Visitors welcome.

WE have witnessed the splendid evidence of the willingness and ability of the American nation to respond quickly and sympathetically to the needs of a suffering community. The Pacific Northwest has been well in the fore in this magnificent work. No community too small or remote, no individual so poor, but there was an eager willingness to share in swelling the fund for immediate relief of San Francisco.

This great relief work has been so skillfully managed that no one has been allowed to suffer for want of food. Rich and poor alike have stood in line and been supplied with bread. Have you caught the vision of weary millions standing in another bread line, famishing for "that bread which came down from heaven?" Their hands are outstretched to us. The Master is saying, "Give ye them to eat." Why do we respond so slowly? Why do we deal out only morsels? How much will you do this year to give that "bread" to the famishing multitudes that they may "eat thereof and not die?"

THE North Pacific Board fully realized that its constituents had been foremost in carrying forward this relief, yet, in full confidence, we sent out an appeal for aid towards rebuilding the Rescue Home for Chinese Women and Girls, believing that each society would deem it a great privilege to thus help our beloved Occidental Board. This Board has always been glad to aid us in our rescue work among the Chinese. This is our opportunity to complete the Christian reciprocity.

MISS EULA VAN VRANKEN of Milton, Oregon, our newly appointed missionary to Laos, expects to sail August 12. Miss Van Vranken's salary will be provided from the 10 per cent. advance asked for foreign missions. Each member may thus have a share in sending this bright young woman.

THE Box Secretary and her associate, Mrs. J. B. Eagleson, have carefully parceled out the box work for the year so that each society may have a part. The schedule was sent in time so that much of the sewing may be completed during the summer. The pledge is very heavy this year and falls in three divisions—emergency boxes, clothing for Sitka school and Christmas boxes for schools. Added to the usual duties of this office is shopping for the accommodation of missionaries living in remote places. Either Mrs. W. J. Honeyman, 63 Twentieth St. North, Portland, Ore., or Mrs. J. B. Eagleson, 902 Boren Ave., Seattle, Wash., will give personal supervision to the purchasing.

MISS JULIA HATCH has closed her fourth year of most helpful work as field secretary. With untiring zeal she has gone up and down over our vast and difficult territory, organizing new societies and encouraging weak ones. This work is discontinued for the year.

THE week preceding Children's Day was set apart by the North Pacific Board as a special time to make a simultaneous canvass for Over Sea and Land and was known as Children's Week. It is too early to hear the results; our subscription list should be more than doubled.

NEW Study Classes are forming and interest in the study of Africa is deepening. Normal Classes have finished their course and are now ready to organize Study Classes in their local churches. "No church without a Study Class," is our slogan.
